An Egg-ceptional Friend

— PART 1 —

One early spring morning, Anna and Olaf are visiting Elsa in the ENCHANTED FOREST. Olaf is very happy to be outside enjoying the first signs of the season: BIRDS chirping, FLOWERS blooming, and BEES buzzing around! “I love SPRING,” he says, excited.

Suddenly, something amid the roots of a tree draws Olaf’s attention: a BIRD’S NEST is lying on the ground. “How strange!” the snowman exclaims. He has recently read in a book that birds’ nests stay ON TOP of the tree branches. So he moves closer to get a better look solve the mystery.

“Wow! What a surprise!” Olaf says, beaming, as he sees an EGG tucked in the little nest. Then he quickly turns to Anna and Elsa, who are walking nearby. “Look at this!” he calls out to them. “What’s going on, Olaf?” asks Anna, intrigued. “I think I’ve found A NEW FRIEND!” Olaf exclaims, overjoyed.

The snowman shows the egg to Anna and Elsa. “Can I bring it TO THE CASTLE?” he asks. “I want to take care of the BABY BIRD when it’s born!” Anna smiles. “That’s very nice of you, Olaf. But first we need to be sure that the nest has been abandoned,” she says. “And that the parents of the baby bird can no longer hatch the egg,” adds Elsa.

Elsa looks up at the sky. “Hmm... it’s strange...” she says thoughtfully. “It’s morning, and birds usually sit on their eggs at this time of the day.” Anna looks at her sister and points at the CROWN OF THE TREE. “Let’s have a look FROM UP THERE!” Then she climbs the birch. “Be careful!” shouts Elsa.

But unfortunately, there is no sign of THE PARENTS of the EGG. “Maybe something happened to them,” Anna says, saddened, as she gets down from the tree and reaches her friends. “Don’t worry. We’ll TAKE CARE of you!” Olaf whispers to the egg with cheer. The snowman can’t wait to take it home.

Back at Arendelle Castle, Olaf finds a BOOK about birds in the library. “Bird eggs come in many DIFFERENT SHAPES,” he reads aloud. “Oval eggs are the most common, while many shorebirds lay pointed eggs,” he continues as Sven, curious, inspects the egg. “What about the HATCHING?” asks Anna.

“First of all, the egg needs to STAY WARM and have a CONSTANT TEMPERATURE,” the snowman reads. Then he pauses, looking up at the sisters in a rush of excitement. “Let’s make it an OUTFIT!” he suggests. “Great idea!” Anna exclaims. “We’ll give you a hand! When we were kids, we used to create lots of CLOTHES FOR OUR STUFFED TOYS,” Elsa says. “Although the result was not always perfect!” She adds laughing.

There is no time to lose! Olaf and his friends immediately GET TO WORK to create a warm outfit for the egg. “Did you know that HUMMINGBIRDS are the smallest birds in the world?” asks Olaf, reading the book, while Elsa measures the egg. “And one OSTRICH EGG is the same size as twenty-four chicken eggs?” continues the snowman, impressed.

When the special outfit is finally ready, Olaf is thrilled. “What now?” Kristoff asks. “Remember to prevent the egg from OVERHEATING,” the snowman reads. “I hate it when I overheat,” he mutters, and then pauses. “What’s overheating?” he asks. “The egg shouldn’t get too warm,” Anna explains. “Oooh! I know what we need, then!” shouts Olaf as he heads out of the room.

When the snowman gets back, he starts to COOL THE EGG with Anna's FAN! "There's nothing to worry about!" he says. SVEN gets close to the snowman and offers to take over the important duty so his friend can keep getting INFORMATION about hatching the egg. Olaf thanks him and keeps reading the book.

"Let's see... Where were we? 'The egg needs TO BE TURNED several times daily,'" Olaf reads. He observes the nest with a puzzled look. Then he lifts the egg. "Be careful, Olaf!" Anna warns him. "Birds' eggs are very FRAGILE."

The snowman's eyes widen. Then he rushes to get his MAGNIFYING GLASS. "Phew," he whispers, noting that there are NO CRACKS IN THE SHELL. "The egg is safe!"

ASK AN ADULT FOR HELP!

FOLD the cardstock in half to make a triangle, then repeat to obtain a smaller triangle (A). FOLD the left side toward the center (B).

Now FOLD the right side to obtain the shape on figure C. FLIP the shape over and CUT along the horizontal edge (D).

CUT OUT a template on page 13 and FIX IT to your triangle with tape. PLACE the tape on the white areas.

Now CUT OUT the blue areas, remove the template, and unfold your shape. Then CUT OUT a square of sticky-back plastic wrap larger than your shape.

Peel off the backing so the sticky side faces up, and use tape to fix the corners to a surface. STICK ON pieces of colored tissue paper.

GLUE your shape on. Make sure the upper corner of the snowflake falls outside the sticky paper.

TRIM OFF the excess sticky-back plastic, then pierce the upper corner of the shape with a pencil.

THREAD a piece of ribbon through the hole and GLUE ON the cutout from the inside back cover. Now hang your decoration next to a window!

An Egg-ceptional Friend

— PART 2 —

Days pass, and Olaf NEVER LEAVES THE EGG ALONE—not even for a moment! He even dreams of the day the baby bird WILL BE BORN. Olaf is thrilled by the idea of PLAYING with his new little friend. There are so many things that they will be able to do together!

Finally, THE EGG HATCHES, and the BABY BIRD PEEKS OUT. “Chirp, chirp, chirp!” it repeats with its sweet voice. “Look how cute!” Olaf cries, looking closely at his feathered pal. Anna, Elsa, and Kristoff happily join Olaf, and everyone cheers at the wonderful news.

Then Olaf picks up the baby bird and giggles. “I THINK IT LIKES ME!” he says. The little bird, in fact, can’t stop slightly pecking the snowman’s CARROT NOSE.

“I think it needs TO BE FED,” Anna observes. Olaf smiles: he already got everything for the NESTLING’S NOURISHMENT and starts feeding it.

After taking care of the egg, Olaf has a new and very important mission: taking care of THE BABY BIRD! He keeps on feeding, cuddling, and watching OVER IT all day with enthusiasm and affection. He already feels a strong attachment to his loving and defenseless new little friend.

Once the baby bird has fully developed WINGS and TAIL FEATHERS, Olaf helps it with its first flight attempts. “FLY!” the snowman repeatedly encourages the chick, flapping his twiggy arms as he runs around the rooms of the Arendelle Castle. The baby bird follows him, gradually getting more and more comfortable with the flight.

After a few days, the bird is finally ready and so SELF-CONFIDENT that it even makes a short flight to show Olaf what it has learned. The snowman is proud of his feathered friend, but he is also SAD. Soon it will be gone! He thinks with a sigh.

Anna and Elsa notice that Olaf is down in the dumps. “The life of the baby bird is outside the castle, IN NATURE,” Elsa tells him with a smile. Anna chimes in and consoles the snowman. “But you can still be FRIENDS FOREVER!” Olaf thinks about it for a moment, then beams.

“That’s true!” Olaf agrees as he quickly reaches the window of the room and opens it. “Chirp, chirp, chirp!” cries the baby bird, tenderly pecking the snowman’s nose. Then it FLIES UP INTO THE SKY. Olaf waves goodbye to his feathered friend, happy to see it finding its own way!

The End

New Arrivals

This little bird needs a nest. TRACE over the dotted lines to draw the nest, then complete each section by drawing lines crossing over each other, as shown.

Springtime Blooms

Spring is here and the flowers are blooming! Anna, Elsa, Kristoff, and Olaf are creating seasonal flower cards to send to the people of Arendelle. Help them collect flower petals so they can finish their cards.

Start

HOW TO PLAY

This is a game for TWO TO FOUR players.

CUT OUT the character counters, flower tokens, flower cards, and die from the inside back cover. GLUE them to cardstock and TRIM to fit. ASSEMBLE the die, and GIVE each player a flower card.

TAKE turns rolling the die and moving the number of spaces shown. When you land on a square with a picture of a flower, COLLECT it by placing the corresponding flower token on your card. Whoever completes their flower card first is the winner.

A Fresh Beginning

In spring, the weather can be quite changeable. After the rain, something magical has appeared in the sky above the fjord.

THE BEST HUGS

Olaf enjoys the view with the animal babies. COLOR in the areas with a dot and find out which animal he'll be hugging next.

SKY WONDERS

It's worth the rain to have a rainbow. COLOR IN the rainbow stripes using the colored dots to help you.

FOREST FRIENDS

CUT OUT more baby animals from the inside back cover and STICK them onto the page to complete this lovely spring scene.

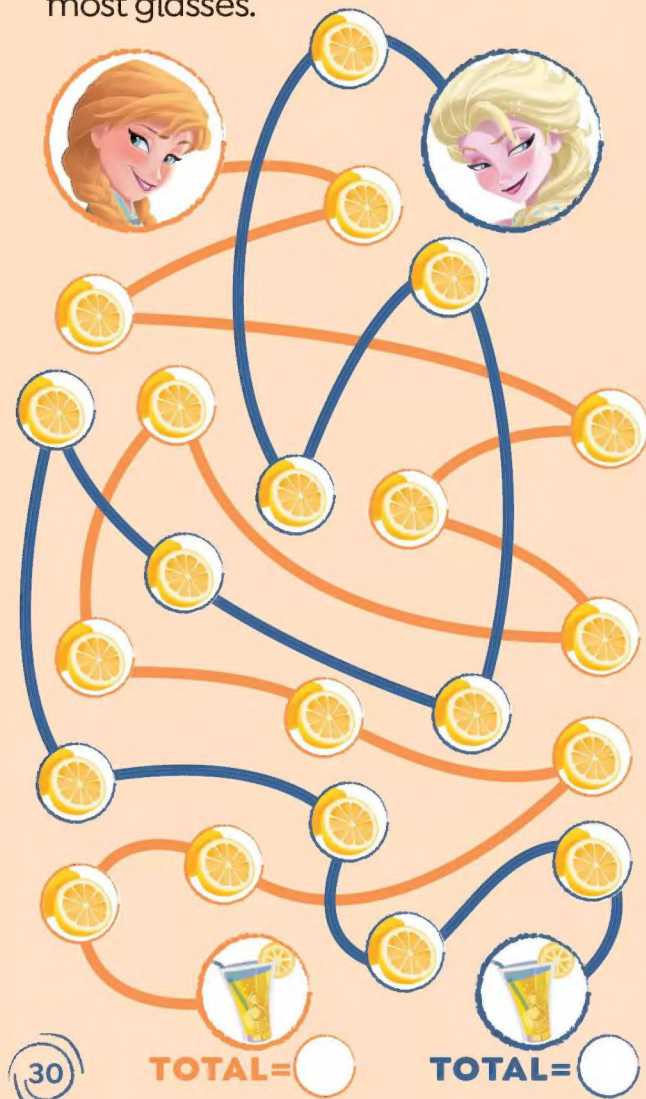

A Refreshing Break

It's a warm spring day, and Elsa and Anna are making some chilled lemonade for the townsfolk and visitors.

FILL IT UP

The sisters' lemonade is very popular! FOLLOW the lines and ADD UP the lemons along the way to find out who has filled up the most glasses.

SMILING PEOPLE

The Arendellians are enjoying their lemonade. FIND the only circle that is part of the scene.

PLENTY OF GLASSES

The queue is getting longer! How much lemonade does everyone want? LOOK at the number next to each character, and COLOR the correct number of stripes using a yellow pencil.
